DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL
[F.R.Civ.P. rule 38(b)]

Defendants.

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs herein complain, by filing this Civil Complaint in accordance with rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure in the Judicial District of the United States District Court of the Southern District of California, that Defendants have in the past, and presently are, engaging in discriminatory practices against individuals with disabilities, specifically including minorities with disabilities. Plaintiffs allege this civil action and others substantial similar thereto are necessary to compel access compliance because empirical research on the effectiveness of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act indicates this Title has failed to achieve full and equal access simply by the executive branch of the Federal Government

1 funding and promoting voluntary compliance efforts. Further, empirical research shows when individuals 2 with disabilities give actual notice of potential access problems to places of public accommodation without 3 a federal civil rights action, the public accommodations do not remove the access barriers. Therefore, 4 Plaintiffs make the following allegations in this federal civil rights action:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. The federal jurisdiction of this action is based on the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 United 7 States Code 12101-12102, 12181-12183 and 12201, et seq. Venue in the Judicial District of the United 8 States District Court of the Southern District of California is in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)
9 because a substantial part of Plaintiffs' claims arose within the Judicial District of the United States District 10 Court of the Southern District of California.

11 SUPPLEMENTAL JURISDICTION

12 2. The Judicial District of the United States District Court of the Southern District of California has 13 supplemental jurisdiction over the state claims as alleged in this Complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).
14 The reason supplemental jurisdiction is proper in this action is because all the causes of action or claims 15 derived from federal law and those arising under state law, as herein alleged, arose from common nucleus
16 of operative facts. The common nucleus of operative facts, include, but are not limited to, the incidents 17 where Plaintiffs were denied full and equal access to Defendants' facilities, goods, and/or services in 18 violation of both federal and state laws when they attempted to enter, use, and/or exit Defendants' facilities
19 as described below within this Complaint. Further, due to this denial of full and equal access, TRIPPLE
20 AAA ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES and other persons 21 with disabilities were injured. Based upon the said allegations, the state actions, as stated herein, are so 22 related to the federal actions that they form part of the same case or controversy and the actions would 23 ordinarily be expected to be tried in one judicial proceeding.

24 NAMED DEFENDANTS AND NAMED PLAINTIFF

25 3. Defendants are, and, at all times mentioned herein, were, a business or corporation or franchise 26 organized and existing and/or doing business under the laws of the State of California. Plaintiffs are further

 ASSESSMENT INFORMATION *****

ASSESSOR'S PARCEL NUMBER: 6825795030

4. The words "Plaintiffs" and "Plaintiff's Member" as used herein specifically include the organization and TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES and persons associated with its Members who accompanied Members to Defendants' facilities. Defendants Does 1 through 10, were at all times relevant herein subsidiaries, employers, employees, agents, of SALIM TALIA DBA MISSION BAY MARKET; 4135 MISSION BLVD SAN DIEGO, CA, 92109-5099

. Plaintiffs are ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 10, inclusive, and therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs will pray leave of the court to amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the Does when ascertained.

5. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants and each of them herein were, at all times relevant to the action, the owner, lessor, lessee, franchiser, franchisee, general partner, limited partner, agent, employee, representing partner, or joint venturer of the remaining Defendants and were acting within the course and scope of that relationship. Plaintiffs are further informed and believe, and thereon allege, that each of the Defendants herein gave consent to, ratified, and/or authorized the acts alleged herein to each of the remaining Defendants.

STATEWIDE CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS UNDER FED.R.CIV.P. 23(b) AS TO ALL DEFENDANTS

6. Plaintiffs are members of a group within the State of California composed of persons with a wide range of disabilities, limited to persons who use wheelchairs for mobility, who must be able to access retail merchandise establishments, like Defendants' establishments located within the facility in which SALIM TALIA DBA MISSION BAY MARKET; 4135 MISSION BLVD SAN DIEGO, CA, 92109-5099

1 is located. Plaintiffs are precluded from equal access to Defendants' establishment so meaningfully 2 because the establishment fails to provide access for members of the disability community who use a 3 wheelchair for mobility to disabled parking facilities, exterior path of travel facilities, entrance facilities, 4 interior path of travel facilities, and display facilities. The Supreme Court of the United States has held as 5 long as the class representative provides adequate representation for the class' interests, the court has the 6 power to adjudicate the rights and obligations of all class members – even those who would otherwise be 7 beyond the reach of its personal jurisdiction. Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 US 797 (1985). This 8 case stands for the proposition that minimum contacts are not required with nonresident members of a 9 plaintiff class because, “the burdens placed by a State upon absent class action plaintiff are not of the same 10 order or magnitude as those it places on an absent defendant.” Id. Plaintiffs allege they will insure class 11 members shall receive adequate notice of the proceedings and the opportunity to “opt out,” if required.

12 Defendants have conducted themselves such as to establish a pattern and practice of architectural 13 discrimination. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants have control over each and every facility, establishment, 14 and/or business located within the Defendant Landlords' facilities in which Defendant SALIM TALIA
15 DBA MISSION BAY MARKET; 4135 MISSION BLVD
16 SAN DIEGO, CA, 92109-5099

17 is located. Accordingly, Plaintiffs allege Defendants are responsible for removing architectural barriers at 18 Defendants' facilities and the establishment/business contained therein. For the aforementioned reasons, 19 Plaintiffs allege they are proper class representatives for members of the disability community who use a 20 wheelchair for mobility because the members of the disability community who use a wheelchair for 21 mobility are so numerous that joinder is impracticable due to the fact more than one hundred (100) persons 22 fall within the membership description. Also, the questions of law or fact are so common because the 23 members of the disability community who use a wheelchair for mobility are being denied their civil rights 24 under federal and state laws – that is, each member of the disability community who use a wheelchair for 25 mobility suffered substantially similar violations relating to exterior path of travel facilities, entrance 26 facilities, restrooms, interior path of travel facilities, and display facilities. Further, the claims or defenses 27 of the representative parties are typical – Plaintiffs have the right to access facilities, establishments, and 28

1 businesses like those within the facility in which Defendant SALIM TALIA DBA MISSION BAY
2 MARKET; 4135 MISSION BLVD
3 SAN DIEGO, CA, 92109-5099

4 is located for many reasons such as the purchase of retail merchandise. Defendants' facilities are open to 5 the general public and Plaintiffs have been denied access because of violations, as outlined above and 6 specifically addressed elsewhere within this Complaint. Additionally, Plaintiffs, as the named 7 representatives, will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the class because Plaintiffs and the 8 members of the disability community in the State of California who use a wheelchair for mobility have 9 suffered substantially similar violations. Finally, a pattern and practice exists on the part of Defendants, 10 and each of them, of architectural discrimination at their public facilities located within the State of 11 California. On information and good faith belief, Plaintiffs thereon allege that Defendants, prior to the 12 passing of the Americans With Disabilities Act in 1992, conceived, commissioned, designed, and 13 implemented among other things, a design for their public facilities, including, but not limited to disabled 14 parking facilities, exterior path of travel facilities, restroom, entrance facilities, interior path of travel 15 facilities, and display facilities, which do not meet the minimal standards outlined under the federal 16 regulations known as the Americans With Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines ("ADAAG") and state 17 regulations, also known as Title 24 of the California Building Code, and to which non-compliant plan they 18 continue to utilize to the injury of the members of the class. For these reasons and the facts as stated 19 herein, Plaintiffs have the right to maintain this statewide class action pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. Rule 23(b).

20
21 CONCISE SET OF FACTS

22 7. In 2006, Plaintiff's Member went to the SALIM TALIA DBA MISSION BAY MARKET; 4135
23 MISSION BLVD
24 SAN DIEGO, CA, 92109-5099

25 . As Said Member is unable to walk Plaintiff's Member uses a wheelchair. Plaintiff's Member experienced 26 architectural barriers at the place at which impeded his access. Plaintiff can prove these barriers as Plaintiff 27 conducted a survey of Defendants' facility and Plaintiff's counsel will provide it to competent defense 28 counsel. Plaintiff's Members allege its visually and hearing impaired members desire to go to Defendants'

1 facility but cannot because of lack of auxiliary aids. Plaintiffs specifically allege that Defendants knew, to a 2 substantial certainty, that the architectural barriers precluded wheelchair access. First, Plaintiffs will prove 3 that Defendants had actual knowledge that the architectural barriers precluded wheelchair access - that it 4 would be hard to believe that noncompliance with ADAAG as to accessible entrances could be other than 5 intentional. Second, due to the abundance of ADA information and constant news covers of ADA lawsuits, 6 Defendants had actual knowledge of the ADA and decided deliberately not to remove architectural barriers.
7 Third, Defendants have no plans to remodel. Fourth, it would be hard to believe that Defendants did not 8 have actual knowledge of ADA given all the ADA public awareness campaigns, the abundance of free
9 ADA information and the media's constant ADA coverage. Fifth, a human being acting for the defendants 10 made a conscious decision as to how to proceed given the presence of the architectural barriers. Plaintiffs 11 allege any alternative methods preclude integration of wheelchair patrons, as it requires them to use a 12 second-class entrance. Also, expert testimony will show the facility contained inaccessible features.
13 Plaintiffs allege businesses often state that they have few customers with disabilities. Plaintiffs allege such 14 customers avoid patronizing inaccessible business and are deterred from patronizing such businesses. The 15 courts have recognized deterrence-based damage claims under Civil Code 54.3 and 52. Since California 16 courts have held that the California disability access laws manifest an intent on the part of the legislature 17 that they be interpreted in a manner that maximizes incentives for compliance, (see Donald, 266 Cal. Rptr.
18 at 808-11) the courts conclude that application of this canon of construction requires that 54.1 and 51, and 19 their respective damages provisions, 54.3 and 52, be interpreted as extending to claims based on incidents
20 of deterrence. The courts therefore hold that where a plaintiff can prove that violations of applicable
21 California disability access standards deterred her on a particular occasion from attempting to attend a place
22 of public accommodation, that plaintiff states a claim for relief under California Civil Code 54.1 and 51
23 and, in particular, for damages, under 54.3 and 52. Plaintiffs allege people with disabilities still face 24 systemic discrimination each and every day. One of the most debilitating forms of discrimination is 25 segregation imposed by others. Discrimination also includes exclusion, or denial of benefits, services, or 26 other opportunities that are as effective and meaningful as those provided to others. Discrimination results 27 from actions or inactions that discriminate by effect as well as by intent or design. Discrimination also 28

1 includes harms resulting from the construction of transportation, architectural, and communication barriers 2 and the adoption or application of standards and criteria and practices and procedures based on 3 thoughtlessness or indifference-of benign neglect. Discrimination also includes harms affecting individuals 4 with a history of disability, and those regarded by others as having a disability as well as persons associated 5 with such individuals that are based on false presumptions, generalizations, misperceptions, patronizing 6 attitudes, ignorance, irrational fears, and pernicious mythologies. Discrimination also includes the effects a 7 person's disability may have on others. The ADA aim is: (1) To provide a clear and comprehensive 8 national mandate for the elimination of discrimination against individuals with disabilities; [and] (2) to 9 provide clear, strong, consistent, enforceable standards addressing discrimination against individuals with 10 disabilities. (42 U.S.C. § 12101(b)(1), (2) (Supp. II 1990)) Plaintiffs allege the legislative history of the Act, 11 which reflects congressional, concerns over the deleterious effects of discrimination against people with 12 disabilities. As a result, Congress incorporated within Title II of the ADA the remedial provision in Section 13 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. (As amended 29 U.S.C. § 794a)(42 U.S.C. § 12133)(See Smith v.
14 Barton, 914 F.2d 1330, 1336 (9th Cir. 1990), cert. denied, 111 S.Ct. 2825 (1991)) Much has been written 15 recently about the ADA and its mechanisms of enforcement. (See e.g., Doran v. Del Taco, Inc., --- 16 F.Supp.2d ---- (C.D. Cal. June 9, 2005); Molski, 347 F.Supp.2d at 862-63; Parr v. L & L Drive-Inn
17 Restaurant, 96 F.Supp.2d 1065, 1070-71 (D.Haw.2000)) For purposes of this suit, it is sufficient to note 18 that the statute creates a private right of action through which a litigant may seek injunctive relief as well as 19 attorneys' fees and costs. (42 U.S.C. § 2188(a)) Plaintiffs allege that it cannot be said that because an 20 attorney has chosen to specialize in an area, which provides statutory attorneys fees his practice is 21 necessarily suspect. Class actions, antitrust, and consumer protection statutes are just some of the examples 22 where the legislature has made a determination that society will benefit from private attorneys general. The 23 ADA is but another example. Plaintiff TRIPPLE AAA ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDREN WITH 24 DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES is an organization that advocates on the behalf of children and others 25 with disabilities specifically including adults who use wheelchairs when their civil rights and liberties have 26 been violated. Plaintiff's Member visited the place in 2006 and plans on returning to the place and he 27 encountered architectural barriers there. Association standing requires that (1) its members would otherwise 28

1 have standing to sue in their own right, (2) the interests the association seeks to protect are germane to the 2 organization's purpose and (3) neither the claim asserted nor the relief requested requires the participation 3 of individual members. Hunt v. Washington Apple Advertising Commission, 432 U.S. 333, 343; Greater 4 Los Angeles Council On Deafness, Inc. v. Baldrige, 827 F.2d 1353, 1358 (9th Cir. 1987). Plaintiffs have 5 standing to bring this action. Plaintiff Association has at least four members who use wheelchairs as they 6 cannot walk at all. The purpose of the Association is to fight to remove access and architectural barriers.

7 8 8. Plaintiff's Member has a physical impairment and due to this impairment he has learned to 9 successfully operate a wheelchair. Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) has physical impairments because her 10 conditions affect one or more of the following body systems: neurological, musculoskeletal, special sense 11 organs, and/or cardiovascular. Further, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) said physical impairments 12 substantially limits one or more of the following major life activities: walking. In addition, Plaintiff's 13 Member and Plaintiff(s) cannot perform one or more of the said major life activities in the manner, speed, 14 and duration when compared to the average person. Moreover, Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) has a 15 history of or has been classified as having a physical impairment as required by 42 U.S.C. § 12102(2)(A).

16 9. Plaintiff's Members expressly intend to patronize the establishment and the property that is the 17 subject of this Complaint in the immediate future.

18 10. When Plaintiff's Member researched Defendants' facilities, he discovered he would be unable to 19 use the public accommodations' at Defendants' business establishment because they failed to comply with 20 ADA Access Guidelines For Buildings and Facilities (hereafter referred to as "ADAAG") and/or 21 California's Title 24 Building Code Requirements as specified herein. Defendants failed to remove access 22 barriers within the parking, exterior path of travel and entrance public accommodations of Defendants' 23 establishment. Plaintiff's Member was deterred from patronizing the facility because he experienced 24 difficulty using the parking, exterior path of travel and entrance access barriers at Defendants' facility.

25 11. The architectural regulations or "design standards" implemented by the federal ADA are often 26 referred to in the literature as "ADAAGs," which is an acronym for "ADA Architectural Guidelines." (See 27 Independent Living I, 982 F. Supp. at pp. 707-708 ["The guidelines issued by the Access Board are 28 denominated the 'ADA Accessibility Guidelines' ('ADAAG.') The design standards enacted by the Attorney

1 General are identical to the ADAAGs, but are denominated as 'Standards.' Despite the technical distinction, 2 the two terms are often used interchangeably."]; Access Now, Inc. v. Ambulatory Surgery Center Group, 3 Ltd. (S.D. Fla. 2001) 146 F. Supp. 2d 1334, 1336 ["These guidelines are called ... ("ADAAG")"). The 4 "ADAAGs" are found in Appendix A to Part 36 of title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The 5 ADAAG violations alleged here are basically so intuitive that it would be hard to believe that 6 noncompliance with them could be other than intentional.

7 8 12. Plaintiff(s) was deterred from patronizing the facility due to the alleged ADA violations and/or 9 alleged architectural barriers outlined in Paragraphs 10 through 11 above.

10 13. While Plaintiff's Member expressly wants to patronize Defendant's establishment and the property 11 that is the subject of this Complaint in the immediate future, Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Member is expressly 12 deterred from returning to the establishment and the property that is the subject of this Complaint due to the 13 existence of the architectural barriers outlined above in Paragraphs 10 through 11.

14 14. Pursuant to federal and state law, Defendants are required to remove barriers to their existing 15 facilities. Further, Defendants had actual knowledge of their barrier removal duties under the Americans 16 with Disabilities Act and the Civil Code before January 26, 1992. Also, Defendants should have known 17 that individuals with disabilities are not required to give notice to a governmental agency before filing suit 18 alleging Defendants failed to remove architectural barriers.

19 15. Plaintiffs believe and herein allege Defendants' facilities have access violations not directly 20 known by Plaintiff which preclude or limit access by other members of Plaintiff organization or other 21 persons with disabilities, including but not limited to violations relating to Space Allowance and Reach 22 Ranges, Accessible Route, Protruding Objects, Ground and Floor Surfaces, Parking and Passenger Loading
23 Zones, Curb Ramps, Ramps, Stairs, Elevators, Platform Lifts (Wheelchair Lifts), Windows, Doors, 24 Entrances, Drinking Fountains and Water Coolers, Water Closets, Toilet Stalls, Urinals, Lavatories and 25 Mirrors, Sinks, Storage, Handrails, Grab Bars, and Controls and Operating Mechanisms, Alarms, 26 Detectable Warnings, Signage, and Telephones. Accordingly, Plaintiffs allege Defendants are required to 27 remove all architectural barriers, known or unknown. Also, Plaintiffs allege Defendants are required to 28 utilize the ADA checklist for Readily Achievable Barrier Removal approved by the United States

1 Department of Justice and created by Adaptive Environments.

2 16. Based on these facts, Plaintiffs allege Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) were discriminated 3 against each time he patronized Defendants' establishment. Plaintiff's Member was extremely upset due to 4 Defendants' conduct.

5 NOTICE

6 17. Plaintiffs are not required to provide notice to the defendants prior to filing a complaint. (See 7 Botosan v. Paul McNally Realty, 216 F.3d 827, 832 (9th Cir 2000))

Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as it is discriminatory to exclude or otherwise deny equal goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, accommodations, or other opportunities to an individual or entity because of the known disability of an individual with whom the individual or entity is known to have a relationship or association in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182. See Niece v. Fitzner 922 F. Supp. 1208 (1996)

Claim VIII

1 26. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendants engaged 2 in the following specific prohibitions: (i) the imposition or application of eligibility criteria that screen out 3 or tend to screen out an individual with a disability or any class of individuals with disabilities from fully 4 and equally enjoying any goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations, unless such 5 criteria can be shown to be necessary for the provision of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, 6 advantages, or accommodations being offered; (ii) a failure to make reasonable modifications in policies, 7 practices, or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities, 8 privileges, advantages, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities;

10 excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the 11 absence of auxiliary aids and services; (iv) a failure to remove architectural barriers, and communication 12 barriers that are structural in nature, in existing facilities in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

13 Claim IX

14 28. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendant failed to 15 demonstrate that the removal of a barrier is not readily achievable, and made such goods, services, 16 facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations available through alternative methods in a segregated 17 manner in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182.

18 Claim X

19 29. Based on the facts stated above, Defendants discriminated against Plaintiffs as Defendants altered 20 the use of their establishment in a manner that affected or could have affected the usability of the facility or 21 part thereof and failed to make alterations in such a manner that, to the maximum extent feasible, the 22 altered portions of the facility are readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, including 23 individuals who use wheelchairs in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12183.

24 30. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment and relief as hereinafter set forth.

27 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS - CLAIMS UNDER CALIFORNIA
28 ACCESSIBILITY LAWS

CLAIM I: Denial Of Full And Equal Access

1
2 31. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere in this complaint, Plaintiff's Member and 3 Plaintiff(s) was denied full and equal access to Defendants' goods, services, facilities, privileges, 4 advantages, or accommodations within a public accommodation owned, leased, and/or operated by 5 Defendants as required by Civil Code Sections 54 and 54.1. Defendants' facility violated California's Title
6 24 Accessible Building Code by failing to provide access to Defendants' facilities due to violations 7 pertaining to the Space Allowance and Reach Ranges, Accessible Route, Protruding Objects, Ground and 8 Floor Surfaces, Parking and Passenger Loading Zones, Curb Ramps, Ramps, Stairs, Elevators, Platform
9 Lifts (Wheelchair Lifts), Windows, Doors, Entrances, Drinking Fountains and Water Coolers, Water
10 Closets, Toilet Stalls, Urinals, Lavatories and Mirrors, Sinks, Storage, Handrails, Grab Bars, and Controls
11 and Operating Mechanisms, Alarms, Detectable Warnings, Signage, and Telephones. These violations
12 denied Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) full and equal access to Defendants' facility. Thus, Plaintiff's 13 Member and Plaintiff(s) was subjected to discrimination pursuant to Civil Code §§ 51, 52, and 54.1 because 14 Plaintiff's Member and Plaintiff(s) was denied full, equal and safe access to Defendants' facility, causing 15 severe emotional distress. The Disabled Persons Act is found in sections 54 of the Civil Code, and has been 16 around in some form on the statute books since the late 1960's--more than 20 years before the federal ADA.
17 (See Stats. 1968, ch. 461.) The Disabled Persons Act begins with the statement in subdivision (a) of section 18 54 that "Individuals with disabilities or medical conditions have the same right as the general public to the 19 full and free use of ... public facilities, and other public places." (β 54, subd. (a).) Section 54 is immediately
20 followed by section 54.1, subdivision (a)(3) of which--in contrast to the more spartan reference to the ADA 21 in section 51--specifically incorporates ADA regulations. The enforcement of section 54 is to be found in 22 section 54.3. Subdivision (a)(3) of section 54.1 provides: " 'Full and equal access,' for purposes of this 23 section in its application to transportation, means access that meets the standards of Titles II and III of the 24 Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) and federal regulations adopted pursuant 25 thereto, except that, if the laws of this state prescribe higher standards, it shall mean access that meets those 26 higher standards." Subdivision (a) of section 54.3 provides in its entirety: "Any person or persons, firm or 27 corporation who denies or interferes with admittance to or enjoyment of the public facilities as specified in 28

1 Sections 54 and 54.1 or otherwise interferes with the rights of an individual with a disability under Section 2 54, 54.1, and 54.2 is liable for each offense for the actual damages and any amount as may be determined 3 by a jury, or the court sitting without a jury, up to a maximum of three times the amount of actual damages 4 but in no case less than one thousand dollars ($ 1,000), and attorney's fees as may be determined by the 5 court in addition thereto, suffered by any person denied any of the rights provided in Sections 54, 54.1, and 6 54.2. 'Interfere' for purposes of this section, includes, but is not limited to, preventing or causing the 7 prevention of a guide dog, signal dog, or service dog from carrying out its functions in assisting a disabled 8 person." Section 54.3 was construed in the 1990 Cafe Royale decision as providing for strict liability--that 9 is, liability without any need for intentional conduct--prior to the 1992 legislation which added both 10 subdivision (f) to section 51 and subdivision (c) of section 54 (back then in the context of the minimum 11 penalty under section 54.3 which was $ 250; now it is $ 1,000). Cafe Royale was a case decided prior to the 12 enactment of the ADA, and contains not a word about federal law. It was also decided exclusively under 13 Civil Code section 54 et seq., and contains not one word on the Unruh Act. In Cafe Royale, a wheelchair 14 user (a former deputy Attorney General and member of the Attorney General's task force on disability) 15 discovered that he could not reach the main dining area of a tiered restaurant on his own, though the 16 restaurant offered to lift him up the stairs. He declined an offer of help because it would attract attention 17 and because he might be dropped in the process of being bodily picked up and moved. He sued the 18 restaurant under section 54.3 because of the absence of ramps or elevators to the second-tiered area. The 19 restaurant thought that it had complied with the law because its architect thought, based on an informal 20 conversation with an employee of the San Francisco building department, that a certain number of 21 handicapped seating places was "all that was needed for compliance." (See id. at. p. 174.) The building
22 department employee, however, gave the restaurant architect erroneous advice. In fact, the State Building 23 Standards Code (required by Government Code section 4450 et seq) provided that all floors of a restaurant 24 be on a common level or else accessible by either ramps or elevators. While a hardship exemption might be 25 obtained, 75 percent of the main dining area would still need to be handicap accessible, and the Cafe
26 Royale's option of seating wheelchair patrons in the bar or having them carried to the common area was a 27 violation. On appeal, the fact of the violation was understood by all parties: "All parties agreed that Cafe 28

1 Royale's seating capacity was in violation of the handicap access requirements." (Cafe Royale, supra, 218
 2 Cal. App. 3d at p. 174.) Hence issue was joined as to whether the restaurant's "good faith" belief that it was 3 "in compliance" (ibid.) was sufficient to deny the patron recovery under section 54.3. The trial court 4 thought so, but the appellate court disagreed. The appellate court reasoned thusly: the fact that section 54.3
 5 said a person who "denies or interferes with admittance to or enjoyment of the public facilities as specified 6 in section 54 and 54.1 ... is liable for each offense ... but in no case less than two hundred fifty dollars ($ 7 250)" The court said: "The plain meaning of this language is that ordinarily minimum statutory damages 8 in the amount of $ 250 must be awarded for a denial of equal access in violation of section 54 et seq., 9 notwithstanding the defendant's intent." (Id. at p. 177.) The Cafe Royale court reasoned that an 10 interpretation of section 54.3 that included an element of intentional violation would, because the level of 11 compliance would diminish, yield "a result that is clearly repugnant to the statutory purpose." Further, the 12 Donald case held a Plaintiff need not visit the facility to sue for compliance. (Id. at pp. 179-180.) So the trial 13 court reversed the trial court judgment awarding the plaintiff nothing, and concluded that he was entitled to 14 the $ 250 statutory minimum. (See id. at pp. 180-181.) Café Royale applies here. Thus, Defendants' good 15 faith efforts, if any, are irrelevant as is any reliance on a city building inspector.

 17 CLAIM II: Failure To Modify Practices, Policies And Procedures

18 32. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere herein this complaint, Defendants failed 19 and refused to provide a reasonable alternative by modifying its practices, policies, and procedures in that 20 they failed to have a scheme, plan, or design to assist Plaintiffs and/or others similarly situated in entering 21 and utilizing Defendants' services as required by Civil Code § 54.1. Thus, Plaintiff's Member and 22 Plaintiff(s) were subjected to discrimination in violation of Civil Code § 54.1.

23 CLAIM III: Violation Of The Unruh Act

24 33. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above and elsewhere herein this complaint and because 25 Defendants violated the Civil Code § 51 by failing to comply with 42 United States Code §
 26 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv) and 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2), Defendants did and continue to knowingly discriminate
 27 against Plaintiffs and persons similarly situated in violation of Civil Code §§ 51, 52, and 54.1. Plaintiffs 28 allege the access violations alleged here are so obvious as to implicate at least a prima facie case of discriminatory intent.

34. Based on the facts plead at ¶¶ 6-16 above, Claims I, II, and III of Plaintiffs' Second Cause Of Action above, and the facts elsewhere herein this complaint, Plaintiffs will suffer irreparable harm unless Defendants are ordered to remove architectural, non-architectural, and communication barriers at Defendants' public accommodation. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants' discriminatory conduct is capable of repetition, and this discriminatory repetition adversely impacts Plaintiffs and a substantial segment of the disability community. Plaintiffs allege there is a state and national public interest in requiring accessibility in places of public accommodation. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law to redress the discriminatory conduct of Defendants. Plaintiffs desire to return to Defendants' places of business in the immediate future. Accordingly, the Plaintiffs allege that a structural or mandatory injunction is necessary to enjoin compliance with state civil rights laws enacted for the benefit of individuals with disabilities.

35. Wherefore, Plaintiffs pray for damages and relief as hereinafter stated.

DEMAND FOR JUDGMENT FOR RELIEF:

- A. For injunctive relief pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188(a). - E. For such other further relief as the court deems proper.
